THE MALDEN SOCIETY
REPRINTS
1911

THE following entry was made in the Register of the Stationers' Company during the year beginning in July 1567:

Recevyd of Rycharde Ionnes for his lycense for pryntinge of a Tragedy of Apius and virgine . . . . . R Ionnes iii<sup>d</sup>

[Arber's Transcript, I. 357.]

So far as is known, however, the edition printed for Jones by William How in 1575 was the first. It is here reprinted. Of the original three copies are recorded, one in the British Museum (C. 34. b. 2), and two in America. The Museum copy, which has formed the basis of the present reprint, has all its leaves except the last, which was presumably blank, but it has at some time been exposed to fire, and the margins of the leaves are scorched. Fortunately the amount of print lost is not great, but the first and last letters of a number of lines, especially towards the foot of the pages, as well as several catchwords, are wanting. Most of these it has been possible to supply from careful notes most kindly supplied by the owner of one of the American copies. Not all, however, since the copy in question unluckily wants most of D<sub>4</sub> and the whole of sheet E. It has not been possible to obtain information concerning the other American copy on account of the owner's absence from home.

The original is printed in black letter of the usual kind, presumably on a pica body (20 ll. = 82 mm.). This has, as in other cases, been represented in the reprint by small pica thin-leaded. But a special difficulty has occurred owing to the roman type which is found among the black letter. In the original this roman, like the black letter, is on a pica body, but the black letter used in the reprint, though practically, if not exactly, identical in face with that of the original, being on a small pica body, it was impossible to use roman pica in the same line with it, and small pica had, of course, to be substituted. But in the original this same roman pica is also used together with black letter of a larger size, namely english. To have represented it in this case likewise by small pica, would have exaggerated the disproportion, and the original size has therefore been retained. Pica has also been kept in the headline. It must therefore be borne in mind that both pica and small pica roman in the reprint represent pica in the original.

As to the authorship nothing definite is known. There were various writers with the initials R.B. in the middle of the seventeenth century, but no evidence has so far been adduced to connect any one of them with the present play.

In the Stationers' Register a 'ballett intituled the Terannye of Iudge apyvs' was entered to John Arnold in the course of the trade year 1569-70 [Arber's Transcript, I. 400].

The list of characters given on the title-page follows the order of appearance. Fame is omitted, presumably as being the same as Rumour.

The editor's thanks are due to Mr. Quaritch for kind assistance with regard to the American copies.

LIST OF IRREGULAR AND DOUBTFUL READINGS, ETC.

IN this list letters or words absent from the British Museum copy are indicated by square brackets: thus 'Ski[es,]' means that all after the i is wanting in that copy. Such of the missing letters or words as are supplied within the brackets are taken from the American copy: none are conjectural. An entry such as that under l. 1070 'E[ ]' indicates that immediately after the signature E the paper is broken away, so that it is impossible to say whether there was a stop or not.

A comma or colon instead of a full stop at the end of a speech is not noticed: nor is the absence of a stop after a speaker's name.

 another form*)

¶ The Epilogue.

AS earthly life is graunted none for euermore to raigne,
But denting death will cause them al to grant this world as baie
Right worshipfull sith sure it is that mortall life must vade,
Do practise then to winne his loue that all in all hath made:
And by this Poets faining here example do you take,
Of Virginias life, of chaffetie, of duty to thy make,
Of loue to wife, of loue to spouse, of loue to husband deare,
Of bringing by of tender youth, all these are noted heare:
I doubt it not right worshipful, but well you do conceiue,
The matter that is ended now, and thus I take my leaue:
Beseeching God as dutie is, our gracious Quæne to saue,
The Nobles, and the commons eke, with prosperous life I craue.

The Prologue.

Qui cupis æthereas & summas scandere sedes
 Vim simul ac fraudem discute chare tibi.
 Fraus hic nulla iuuat, nō fortia facta iuuabūt,
 Sola Dei tua te trahat, terse fides.
 Qui placet in terris intactæ palludis instar,
 Viuere Virginiam nitore virgo sequi,
 Quos tulit & luctus, discas gaudia magna
 Vitæ, dum parcè scinder fila parent.
 Huc ades ô virgo, pariterè moritura sepulchro,
 Sic ait, & faciem pallida morte mutat.

10

Who doth desire the trump of fame, to sound vnto the Skies,
 Or els who seekes the holy place, where mighty Ioue he lies,
 He must not by deceitfull mind, nor yet by puissant strength,
 But by the faith and sacred lyfe, he must it win at length,
 And what she be that virgins lyfe, on earth wold gladly leade,
 The studds that Virginia did fall, I wish her reade,
 Her doller and hit dolefull losse, and yet her ioyes at death,
 Come Virgins pure to graue with mee, quoth she with latest breath,
 You Lordings all that present be, this Tragicdie to heare,

20

Note well what zeale and loue, heerein doth well appeare,
 And Ladies you that linked are, in wedlocke bandes for euer,
 Do imitate the life you see, whose fame will perish neuer,
 But Virgins you, oh Ladies faire, for honour of your name.
 Doo lead the life apparent heere, to win immortall fame,
 Let not the blinded God of Loue, as Poets tearme him so,
 Nor Venus with her benery, nor Lechoys cause of wo
 Your Virgins name to spot or fle: deare dames obserue the like,
 That faire Verginia did obserue, who rather with the knife,
 Of fathers hand hit life to ende, then spot her chastety :

30

As she did waile, waile you her want you maids of courtesie.
 If any by example heere, would shun that great anoy,
 Our Authour would reioyce in hart, and we would leap for ioy,
 Would Gods that our indeuer may, as well to please your eares,
 As is our Auctoys meaning heere, then were we voyde of feares :
 But patiently wee wish you beare with this our first attempt.
 Which surely will to do our best, then yeeld vs no contempt,
 And as you please in patient wise, our first for to receiue,
 Ere long a better shall you win, if god do graunt vs leaue.

Enter Virginius.

- 41 BEfore the time that fortunes lot, dyd shew ech fate his dome,
 Or Byrde, or Beast, or fish, or foule, or Earth had taken come:
 The Gods they did decree to frame, the thing is ended now,
 The Heauens, and the Planets eke, and moyst from ayre to bow.
 Then framed they y<sup>e</sup> man of mould & clay, & gaue him time to raigñ,
 As seemed best their sacred minds, to runne and turne againe:
 They framed also after this, out of his tender side,
 A peece of much soymositie, with him for to abide:
 From infansie to lusty you, and so to raigne awhile,
 50 And well to liue, tyl Etashe vnwares, do him begyle.
 And sith to see these giftes of them, on grounded caue to betw,
 Not dauntly to deck them vp, which after they may rew:
 Wherfore I thank the Gods aboue, that yeeld to mee such fate,
 To lincke to mee so iust a spoule, and eke so louing mate.
 By her I haue a virgin pure, an ympe of heauenly race,
 Both sober, meeke, and modest too, and vertuous in lyke case:
 To Temple will I wend therfore, to yeeld the Gods their praïse,
 For that they haue thus luckely, anered with my daies.
 But stay, behold the peerelesse sparks wherof my tongue dyd talke,
 60 Approch in prelsence of my sight, to church I deeme they walk,
 But stay I wyll, and shoud me secretly a while,
 To see what witte or counsell graue, proceedeth from their stile.

¶ Heere entreth Mater and Virginia.

- The pette and picking prime of youth, ought chastilment to haue,
 But thou deare daughter needest not, thy self doth shew thee graue:
 To see how Phœbus with his beames, hath youth so much infected,
 It doth me woe to see them craue the thing should be detected.
 I draw to graue, and naught can leaue of thee to be desired,
 As much as duty to thy deare, as reason hath required:
 70 Thy sufferent Lord and scindly feare, Virginius father thine,
 To nurse as doth become a childe, when boanes are buried mine.
 Virginius,

Keel your minde of mournig plaints, deare mother rest your minde

For

of Apius and Virginia.

For though that duty dainty were, dame nature will me binde,
So much to do, and further force, of Gods that rule the Skies,
The Glope and eke the Element, they would me els dispies.

Mater.

Then if the Gods haue graunted thee, such grace to loue thy Sper,
When time shall choole thee out a make be constant I requier:
Loue, liue, and lyke him well, before you graunt him grace or faith, 80
So shall your loue continue long, experience thus he saith.

Virginia.

I graunt deare Dame I doo agree,
When time shall so prouide:
But tender youth and infansie,
Doth rather wish me hide,
What should I lose Dianas giste,
And eke the Spring to thun:
By which Acteon fateally,
His snall race did run: 90
Should I as abiect be esteemed,
Throughtout Parnassus hill,
Or should my Virgins name be silde,
It were to great a skyll:
But yet it is vnspotted loe,
Right well I doo conceaue,
When wedlocke doth require the same,
With parents loue and leaue:
Yet obstinate I wyll not be,
But willing will me yeeld: 100
When you commaund and not before
Then duety shall me sheeld.

Virginius.

Ah Gods that rule and raine, in heauens, in seas, in fiods and lands,
Two couple such I surely deeme, you neuer made with hands,
A Gods why doo ye not compel eche Dame the lyke to shoue?
And euery I mpe of her againe, her duty thus to know,
I cannot stay my tounge from talke, I needes must call my deare,
Oh spouse wel met & Daughter to, what newes how do you cheare?

Here entreteth Haphazard the Usce.

Very well sit, very well sit, it shalbe doone,
As fast as euer I can prepare,
Who dippes with the Diuel, he had neede haue a long spoone,
Or els full smale will be his fare:
Yet a proper Gentleman I am of truthe
Yea that may yee see by my long side gotwne,

Yea

of Apius and Virginia.

Pea but what am I, a Scholer, or a scholemaster, or els some youth. 210

A Lawier, a student or els a countrie cloune

A Bumman, a Bakkit maker, or a Baker of Pies,

A flesh or a Fishmonger, or a sower of lies :

A Loule or a louser, a Leeke or a Larke :

A Dreamer a Drommell, a fire or a sparke :

A Caitife, a Cutthrote, a creper in corners,

A herbyaine, a hangman, or a grafter of hoyners :

By the Gods, I know not how best to deuise,

My name or my property, well to disguise :

A Marchaunte, a May poole, a man or a mackrell : 220

A Crab or a Creuise, a Crane or a cockerell :

Most of all these my nature doth inioy,

Somtime I aduance the m, somtime I destroy,

A mayde or a Mussell Bote, a wife or a wilde ducke,

As bolde as blinde bayerd, as wise as a wood cocke.

As fine as phippence, as proude as a Pecocke,

As stout as a Stockefish, as meeke as a mecocke,

As bigge as a begger, as fat as a foole,

As true as a Tinker, as riche as an Owle,

With hey tricke, how trowle, trey trip, and trey trace, 230

Trowle hazard in a vengeance I beshew his knaues face

Foꝛ tro, and trowle hazard, keepe such a range

That poore haphazard, was neuer so strange,

But yet Haphazard, be of good cheere,

Goe play and repast thee man, be mery to peere :

Though bittasse be dainty and hard foꝛ to get.

Yet perhaps a number will die of the swet,

Though it be in hazard, yet happely I may,

Though mony be lacking, yet one day go gay. 240

When Maud, with a pestelence, what makst thou no hast ?

Of Baybery insence belike thou wouldest tast,

By the Gods I haue stayed a full great while,

My loꝛde he is neare hand by this at the Church stile,

And al foꝛ Maud mumble turde, that mampodding madge

By the Gods if she hie not, she geue her my badge.

The Tragicall Comedie

Manipula.

What drake nosed diuell, begin you to floute.
He drie you in a fagot sticke, by cocke goodman loute
250 You boaster you bragger, you brawling knaue :
He pay thee thy fortpence, thou brawling slaue:
My Ladies great busines belike is at ende,
When you goodman dawcocke, lust for to wend,
You, codshed you crackerope, you chattering ppe,
Haue with ye, haue at ye, your manhode to try.

Haphazard.

What holde your hands masters, what? fie for shame fie,
What culling? what lulling? what stir haue wee here?
What tugging? what lugging? what pugging by the eare,
260 What part and be freinds, and ende all this strife,

Manipulus.

Play rather I wishe hir, the end of my knife :

Manipula.

Drawe it, geue mee it, I will it receaue,
So that for to place it, I might haue good leaue,
By the Gods: but for losing my land, lyfe, and liuing,
It should be so placed, he should haue ill thziuing:

Manipilus.

By the Gods how vngraciously the vicklen she chatteth,

Manipula.

270 And he euen as knauishly, my answer he patteth,

Haphazard.

Here is naught els, but railing of words out of reason,
Now tugging, now tatling, now musling in season,
For shame be contented and leaue of this brawling,

Manipulus.

Content, for I shall repent it, for this my tonge wjalling:

Manipula.

280 Thou knaue, but for thee, ere this time of day,
My Ladies faire Due, had been strawed full gay:
With Pymroles, Couclips, and Violets sweete:
With Hints, and with Marigolds, and Margerum meete,

Which

of Apius and Virginia.

Which now lyeth vncleanly and all long of thee,
That a shame recompence thee, for hindring mee,
Mansipulus.

Ah pietie pranck parnel, the Coughen and Booke,
Whereon he shoulde reade and kneele, are present here looke:
My Lorde when he seeth mee, he will cast such an eye,
As pinch wyll my hart neare ready to die:
And thus wise, and thus wise, his hand wyll be walking
With thou precious knaue, away get thee packing
¶ Here let hym fight.

290

Haphazard.
Say then by the masse, its time to be knocking,
No words at all but to me he is poynting:
Say haue at you againe, you shall haue your annoynting,
Mansipula.

Body of me, hold yt ye can,
What will you kill such a proper man?
Haphazard.

300

Say sure I haue done when women do speake,
Why would the knaue my patience so breake?
Mansipulus.

Well I must begon, there is no remedy
For feare my taylor makes buttons, by mine honesty.
Haphazard.

For reuerence on your face, your nose and your chin:
By the Gods haue ye hard such an vnmannery villin.
Mansipula.

I neuer heard one so rancke of rudnesse,
Mansipulus.

310

In faith it is but for lacke of lewdnesse:
But here I burne day light, while thus I am talking
A way come Mansipula, let vs be walking,
Mansipula

Contented Mansipulus, haue with thee with speede,
Haphazard.

Say say yet my freendes I am not agreeede.

320 Wee dare not tary, by God wee sweare.

Haphazard.

May tarry take comfort with you for to beare,
It is but in hazard and yf you be mist,
And so it may happen you feele not his fist:
Perhaps he is stayde by talke with some friend
It is but in hazarde, then sing or you wend
Let hope be your helper, your care to defend.

Manipulus.

330 By hap or by hazard, we singe or we crie,
Then singe let vs say so, let sorrow go by.

Manipula.

We can be but beaten that is the worst,

What how Manipulus, thou knaue art thou curst?
My lorde standeth talking and I gape for thee,
Come away with a wannion, runne hast and hie,

Manipulus.

May herken Superuus, stay I pray thee,
Let vs haue a song and then haue with thee:

340 Subferuus.

Content if thou hie thee.

¶ Sing heere all.

Hope so, and hap so, in hazard of thyetninge,
The worst that can hap so, in end is but beating.

Manipulus.

350 What if my Lordinge, doo chaunce for to misse me,
The worst that can happen, is Cudgell will kisse mee,
In such kinde of sweetnes, I sweare by Gods mother,
It will please me better, it were on some other,
With thwicke thwack, with thump thump,
with bobbing and bum,
Our syde saddle shoulders shal sheilde that doth come?
Hope so, and hap so, in hazarde. &c.

With thwick thwack, with thump thump,
With bobbing and bum,
Our side saddle shoulders shal sheild that doth come,
Hope so, and hap so, in hazard &c.

370

Haphazard.

Then let vs be mery, it is but by hap,
A hazardly chaunce may harbor a clap,
Bestur ye, be mery, be glad and be ioying,
For bloes are but buffits and smale time annoying,
With thwick thwack, with thump thump,
With bobbing and bum,
Our side saddle shoulders shal sheild that doth come.
Hope so, and hap so, in hazard &c.

380

The end of the song.

All speaketh this.

Haphazard farewell, the Gods do thanke thee. Exiunt.

Haphazard.

Farwell my friends, farwell goe plancke yee:
By the Gods Haphazard, these men haue tried thee,

Who

A new Tragicall Comedie

Who sayd thou wast no man, sure he belied thee,
 By Ioue master Marchant by sea or by land,
 Would get but smale argent, if I did not stand,
 390 His very good master, I may say to you,
 When he hazards in hope, what hap will insue:
 In court I am no man, by cocke sit ye lie,
 A Plowman perhaps or ere that he die,
 May hap be a Gentleman, a Courtier or Captaine,
 And hap may so hazard, he may goe a begging:
 Perhaps that a Gentleman, heyre to great land,
 Which selleth his liuing, for mony in hand,
 In hazard it is the bying of moze,
 Perhaps he may ride when spent is the store:
 400 Hap may so hazard the Hoone may so chaunge.
 That men may be masters, and wiues will not raunge:
 But in hazard it is in many a grange.
 Lest wiues were the Codpeece, and maydens coy strange:
 As Pecoakes sit perking, by chaunce in the plomtree,
 So maides would be masters, by the guile of this countrey
 Haphazard eche state full well that he markes,
 If hap the skie fall, we hap may haue Larkes:
 Well, fare ye well now, for better or worse,
 Put hands to your pockets, haue minde to your purse.

¶ Enter Judge Apius.

411 The forowd face of Fortunes force, my pinching paine doth moue
 I settled ruler of my realme inforced am to loue:
 Judge Apius I the princelest Judge, that raigneth vnder sonne,
 And haue bene so esteemed long, but now my force is done:
 I rule no moze, but ruled am, I do not Judge, but am Judged,
 By beuty of Virginia, my wisdome all is trudged,
 Oh perelelle Dame, Oh passing peece, oh face of such a sature.
 That neuer erst with bewty such, matched was by nature:
 Oh sond Apelles pratling foole, why boastest thou so much?
 420 The samost peece thou madst in Greece, whose liments were such
 Or why didst thou deceued man, for beuty of thy worke?

In

of Apius and Virginia.

In such a sort with fond desire, where no kinde lyfe dyd lurke,
 With raging fits thou foole ran mad, oh fond Pigmalion,
 Yet sure if that thou sawest my deare, the like y<sup>e</sup> couldst make none,
 Then what may I, oh Gods above, bend downe to heare my crie,
 As once he did to Salmasis, in Pond hard Lyzia by:
 Oh that Virginia were in case as somtyme Salmasis,
 And in Hermafroditus steede, my selfe might seeke my blisse,
 Ah Gods, would I vnfolde her armes, complecting of my necke?
 Or would I hurt her nimble hand, or yeelde her such a checke? 430
 Would I gainlay hir tender skinne, to baath where I do washe?
 Or els refuse hir soft sweete lippes, to touch my naked fleshe?
 Nay, oh the Gods do know my minde, I rather would requier,
 To sue, to serue, to crouch, to kneele, to craue for my desier.
 But out ye Gods, ye bende your browes, and frowne to see me fare,
 Ye do not force my sickle fate, ye do not way my care,
 Unrighteous, and vnequall Gods, vnjust, and eke vntrue,
 Woe worth the time ye made me liue, to see this haplesse houre:
 Dyd Iphis hang himselke for loue, of Lady not so faire?
 Or els did loue the cloudie mistes, bend downe from lightsome ayre: 440
 Or as the Poets mencion make, of Inachs daughter meeke,
 For loue dyd he to make a Cowe, whom Inach long dyd seeke:
 Is loue so great, to cause the quicke, to enter into Hell,
 As stout Orpheus did attempt, as histories do tell?
 Then what is it that loue cannot? why loue dyd pearce the skies:
 Why Pheb. and famous Mercury, with loue had blinded eyes?
 But I a Judge of grounded yeeres, shall reape to me such name,
 As shall resounde dishonour great, with Trump of carelesse fame:
 Oh that my yeeres were youthfull yet, or that I were vnwedded.

¶ Here entreteth Haphazard.

450

Why cease sir Knight, for why perhaps, of you she shalbe bedded:
 For solow my counsell, so may you me please,
 That of carefull relurging, your hart shall haue ease.

Apus.

Oh thundring Gods that threaten ye,
 and Plague for ethe offence:

¶ Pour

A new Tragicall Comedie

Pour selues I deeme would counsell craue,
in this so fit pretence:
And eke your nimble stretched armes,
460 with great rewards would lie,
To purchase faire Virginia,
so deare a wight to me:
And friend, I sweare by Iubiter,
and eke by Iunos seate:
And eke by all the miseries,
where on thou canst intreate:
Thou shalt possesse and haue,
I will thee graunt and geue,
The greatest part of all my Realme,
470 for aye thee to releue.

Haphazard.

Well then, this is my counsell, thus standeth the case,
Perhaps such a fetch, as may please your grace:
There is no moze wayes, but hap or hap not,
Either hap, or els haplesse, to knit vp the knot:
And if you will hazard, to venter what falles,
Perhaps, that Haphazard, will end al your thalles.

Apus.

I meane so, I will so, if thou do perswade me,
480 To hap or to hazard, what thing shall enuade me:
I King, and I Keyser, I rule and ouerwealme:
I do what it please me, with in this my realme:
Wherefoze in thy iudgement, see that thou do enter,
Hap life or hap death, I surely will venter.

Haphazard.

Then this, and in this sozte, standeth the matter,
What neede many wordes, vnlesse I should flatter,
Full many there be, will hazarde their life,
Happely to ease your grace of all your strife,
490 Of this kinde of conspirasse now let vs common,
Some man, Virginus, befoze you must summon,
And say that Virginia is none of his Daughter.

But

of Apius and Virginia.

But that Virginius by night away caught her :
Then charge you the father his Daughter to bringe,
Then do you detayne hir, till proued be the thing:
Which well you may win hir, the present in house,
It is but Haphazar de, a man or a mouse

Apus.

I finde it, I minde it, I sweare that I will,
Though shame, or defame, do happen no skill,
But out I am wounded, how am I deuided?
Two states of my life, from me are now glided,
For Conscience he pricketh me contempned,
And Justice saith, Judgement wold haue me condem
Conscience saith crueltie sure will detest me:
And Justice saith, death in thende will molest me,
And both in one sodden me thinkes they do etie,
That fier eternall, my soule shall destroy.

Haphazard.

Why these are but thoughts man? why fie for shame fie
For Conscience was carelesse, and sayling by seas,
Was drowned in a basket and had a disease,
Soze mooued for pitye, when he would graunt none,
For beyng hard harted, was turned to a stone:
And sayling by Sandwitche he sunke for his sin,
Then care not for conscience, the worth of a pin:
And Judgement iudge Justice to haue a reward,
For iudging still iustly, but all is now marde,
For giftes they are geuen, wher Judgement is none,
Thus Judgement and Justice awzonge way hath gone:
Then care not for Conscience the worth of a fable,
Justice is no man, nor nought to do able.

Apus.

And saiest thou so my sured freende, then hap as hap shall hit,
Let Conscience grope, & iudgement craue, I wil not shrink one whit
I well perleuer in my thought, I will deflower hir youth,
I will not sure reuerted be, my hart shall haue no ruth,
Come on proceede and wayte on me, I will hap woe or wealth,

C.

I liue and languish in my lyfe,
as doth the wounded Deare:
I thirst, I craue, I call and crye,
and yet am naught the neare:
And yet I haue that me so match,
within the Realme of mine:
But Tantalus amidst my care,
I hunger sterue and pine:
As Sisyfus I roule the stone,
in vaine to top of Hill:
That euermore vncertainly, reuoluing liueth still:

Manipulus.

Wasse lye, hap dyd so happen, that my Lorde and maister,
Staid in beholding and vewing the Pasture.
Which when I perceiued, what excuse did I make?
I came in the crosse way, on the ner side the foylake,
Hard by Hodges halfe aker, at gatters Millers stile.
The next way round about, by the space of a mile,
And at Symkings side ridge, my Lord stode talking,
And angerly to me (quoth he) wher halt thou ben walking
Without any staggeryng, I had ready my lye,

Out

A new Tragicall Comedie

Out at Bridgemedow, and at Benols leale (quoth I)
Your fatlings are feeding well Sir, the Gods be praised,
A goodly loume of beef on them is all redy raised,
The outsteps on Frauncis Fabulator that was neuer my friende,
How past you Carters hay rocke, at long medow ende
There might one (quoth he) within this few dayes,
With a cast net had geuen.iiii.knaues great allayes:
740 Under the Hedge with a payre of new Cardes both rip and sledge,
Is it true quoth my Loꝛde, will this geare neuer be leste,
This causes swearing, and staving, pꝛoling and theste:
Well (quoth my Loꝛde) take hede least I finde.it,
And so past his way, and did no moꝛe minde it.

Haphazard.

By the Gods that was sport, ye and sport alone,
Manipula.

Pea, but I was in worse case by Saint Ihon,
My Lady in Church was set full douout,
750 And hearing my comming she tourned aboute:
But as soone as I heard hir snappishly sounde,
In this coꝛte I crouched me downe to the grounde,
And mannerly Maude, as though I were sad,
As soone as she Due then strawed I had,
She gaue me a wincke, and frowardly crowne,
Wherby I do iudge, she woulde cougell my gowne:
Then I dyd deuise, a pꝛety fine pranke,
A meane wherby to picke me a thanke:
760 Of Margery Mildon the maide of the Milke house,
And stainer the stutter the guid of the stoꝛe house,
Then was my Ladies anger well gone,
And wilbe so still, and the truthe be not knowne.

Haphazard.

Ver Lady, barefoote this bakes trimly,
Subseruus.

May but I escaped moꝛe finely,
For I vnder this hedge one while dyd stay,
Then in this bushe, then in that way:

Then

of Apius and Virginia.

Then list I behind them among all the rest,
And seemed to common to, of things with the best, 770
But so it did happen, that all things were well,
But hazard it is, least time will truth tell.

Haphazard.

Tut, tut, that was but by hap, and if it be so,
Well sith it was in hazard then let it goo,

Subseruus.

Content by my honestie, then farewell all wo,

Manipulus.

Come out dogge, ye speake happely of truth if it be so,

All speake.

780

Now master Haphazard, fare you well for a season,

Haphazard,

Let my counsell at no time with you be geason.

All speaketh.

Do by the Gods, be sure not so,

Haphazard.

Well sith here is no company haue with ye to Jerico. Exit.

Enter Virginius.

What so the Gods they haue decreed to worke and do by me?
I meruaile why Judge Apius he, such gretings lets me see: 790
I serued haue his seate, and state, I haue maintaind his weale,
I haue suppress the rebels skoute, I beare to him such zeale,
And now he lends to me such charge, vpon my life and lands,
Without demur, or further pause, or ere ought things be scand,
That I in hast, with posting speede, to Court I do repaire,
To aunswer that aleaged is, befoze his Judgement Chaire,
Some Histories they do expresse, when such mishaps do fall,
They should haue tokens many a one, I haue not one but all:
My Iuels somtime precious, do vade and beare no hewe,
My fences they do shun there course, my lights do burne as blewe: 800
My willing wights are wared now, that once were swifte in speede
My hart it throbs in wonderous soyt, my nose doth often bleede:

D.

My

The Tragicall Comedie

My dreadfull dreames do draw my woe and hatefull hazard hale,
These tokens be of euell hap, this is the old wiues tale:
But yet O thou Virginius, whose hoary heares are olde,
Didst treason neuer yet commit, of this thou maist be bould:
In Mars his games, in marshall seates, thou wast his only aide,
The huge Carrebd his hazards thou, for him was ofte assaide:
Was Sillas force by thee oft shunde, or yet Adyce lande,
810 Laceface childe that Minnotaur, did cause thee euer stande:
To pleasure him, to serue thy leach, to keepe all things byright,
Thou God above, then what is it, that yeeldeth me this spight?
Sith nothing neede misdoubted be, where grounded cause is none,
I enter will Iudge Apius gate, reiecting care and mone:
But stay Virginius, loe, thy Prince doth enter into place,
Oh sufferant Lord, and rightfull Iudge, the Gods do saue thy grace,

¶ Here entreteth Iudge Apius and Claudius.

With tender hart Virginius, thou welcome art to me,
820 I loy am to vtter out, the things I here of thee:
For Claudius a subiecte here, a man of mickle fame,
Appealeth thee before my Courte, in deede of open shame:
And though in deede I loue thee so, as thy deserts deserue,
Yet not so but I must Iudgement geue, as Iustice doth require.
Virginius.

My Lord and reason good it is, your seruaunt doth request,
No parciall hand to aide his cause, no parciall minde or best:
If ought I haue offended you, your Courte, or eke your Crowne,
From lofty top of Turret hie, persupetat me downe:
830 If treason none by me be done, or any fault committed,
Let my accusers heare the blame, and let me be remitted.
Apus.

Good reason to Virginius, come Claudius shew thy minde,
Let Iustice here, if Iudgment may, Virginius giltie finde Claudius.

Thou sufferant Lord, and rightfull Iudge, this standeth now þ case,
In

of Apius and Virginia.

In tender youth not long ago, nere sixtene yeares of space,
Virginus a thral of mine, a childe and infant yonge,
From me did take by subtell meane, and keepes by arme full strong
And here befoze your grace I craue, that Justice be extended, 840
That I may haue my thral agayne, and faultes may be amended
Virginus.

Oh Gods that guide the globe about what forged tales I here,
Oh Judge Apius, bend your eares, while this my crime I cleare:
She is my child, and of my wise her tender corpes did springe,
Let all the countrey where I dwell, beare witness of the thing.

Apius and Claudius go forth, but Apius speaketh this.

Ray by the Gods not so my friend, I do not so decree,
I charge thee here in paine of death, thou bring the maide to mee:
In chamber close, in pylon sound, she secret shall abide, 850
And no kinde of wight shall talke with her, vntill the truth be tride:
This doo I charge, this I commaund, in paine of death let see,
Without any let, that she be brought, as pyloner vnto me: Exit.

Here let Virginus go about the scaffold

Oh sickle faule, vnahppy dome, oh most vncertaine rate,
That euer chaunce so churlishly, that neuer stasde in state: (finde?
What Judge is this: what cruell wretch? what faith doth Claudius
The Gods do recompence with shame, his false and faithles minde:
Well home I must, no remedy, where shall my soking teares,
Augment my woes, decrease my ioyes, while death do rid my feares 860

¶ Here entreteth Rumour.

Come Ventus come, blow forth thy blast,
Prince Eol listen well,
The filthiest facte that euer was,
I Rumor now shall tell:
You gods bend downe to here my crie,

The Tragicall Comedie

reuengemente dully shoue,
Thy Rumor craues did Claudius lay,
and byng Judge Apius loe?
870 That wicked man, that fleshly Judge,
hath hiered Claudius,
To claime a childe, the only heyre,
of olde Virginius.
A birgin pure, a Queene in life,
whose state may be deplored,
For why the Queene of chaste life,
is like to be desloured:
By false Judge Apius cruell wretche,
who straightly hath commaunded,
880 That she to keping his be brought,
Bynce Pluto this demaunded:
To skies I lie to blake abyode,
the trompe of depe defame,
Reuenge you Gods this Rumor craues,
this bloud and bloody shame:
Haue throug the ayre, geue place you ayres,
this is my dutye done,
The Gods confound such lecherers, loe Rumor this I run.
890 Virginius.
O man, O mould, oh mucke, O clay, O Hell, O hellish hounde,
O faulke Judge Apius wablinge wretch, is this thy treason found:
Woe worth the man that gaue the seede, wherby þ first didst spring
Woe worth the wombe þ bare the babe, to meane this bluddy thing:
Woe worth the paps that gaue þ sucke, woe worth the Fosters eke
Woe worth all such as euer did, thy health or liking seeke:
Oh that the graued yeares of mine, were couered in the clay

¶ Here entreteth Virginia.

Let pacience deare father mine, your rigor something stay,
900 Why do you waile in such a sorte? why do you weepe and mone?
Virgi-

of Apius and Virginia.

Virginus

Oh daughter deare and only heyre, my life is neare forygone,
And all for loue of thee

Virginia.

A Gods how may this be?

Deare father do withdraw your dread, and let me know the cause,
My selfe wyll apde with lyfe or death, without demur or pause:
Then tender your childe, that craueth this bound.

Virginus

Oh harken deare daughter attend thou my sounde :

910

Judge Apius pickt forth with filthy desire :

Thy person as Lemmon, doth greatly require :

And no kinde of intreatie, no feare nor no shame,

Will he heare aledge, defending the same:

And straight without staying in paine of my death,

I must bring thee thither, wherfore stop my breath,

O Sisters, I searce, I seeke, and I craue,

So more at your handes, but death for to haue ,

Rather then see my Daughter desflourde,

O els in ill sorte, so vildely deuourde.

920

Virginia.

Oh father, oh friendship, oh fatherly fauour,

Whose dulcet words, so sweetly do fauour,

On knees I beleeche thee to graunt my request,

In all things according, as lyketh thee best :

Thou knowest, O my father, if I be once spotted,

My name and my kindred, then forth wilbe blotted:

And if thou my father, should die for my cause,

The world would accompt me as guilty in cause :

Then rather deare father, if it be thy pleasure,

930

Graunt me the death, then keepe I my treasure?

My Lampe, my light, my life vndefiled,

And so may Judge Apius, of flesh be begiled:

This vpon my knees with humble behest,

Graunt me O father my instant requeste.

Virginus.

A new Tragicall Comedie

Virginus

Then ryle by my daughter, my aunswere doo note,
From mouth of thy father, whose eyes do now flote:
O daughter, oh deare, O darling, oh dame,
940 Dispatch me I pray thee, regarde not my name:
But yet, as thou saiest sith remedy none,
But Lemmon thou must be, if I were gone,
And better it is to dye with good fame,
Then longer to liue to reape vs but shame:
But if thou do dye, no doubt is at all,
But presently after my selke solow shall,
Then end without shame so let vs perseuer,
With trompe of good fame so dye shall we neuer.

Virginia here kneeleth.

950 Then tender armes complect the neck, doo dry thy fathers teares,
You nimble handes for two whereof, my louing hart it weares:
Oh father mine, refraine no whit, your sharped knife to take,
From gittles sheath, my shame to ende, and body dead to make:
Let not the shameles blouddy iudge, defile my virgins life,
Doe take my head and send it him, vpon your blouddy knife:
Bid him imbue his blouddy handes, in gittles bloud of mee:
I virgin dye, he leacher liues, he was my ende you see:
No more delays, lo kille me first, then stretch your strongest arme,
Do ryd my woe, increase my ioy, do eate your childe of harme.

Virginus.

960 O weary wittes of wo, or wealth, oh feble aged man,
How can thy arme geue such a blow, thy death I wishe thee than:
But sith that shame with endles trompe, wil sounde if case thou ioy,
By meanes of falle iudge Apus he, my selve will thee destroy:
Forgeue me babe this blouddy deede, and meekely take thy ende,
Here let him profer a blowe,
The Gods forgeue thee father deare, farewell, thy blow do hend:
Yet stay a while, o father deare, for fleath to death is fraile,
Let first my wimple bind my eyes, and then thy blow assaile.
970 Pow father worke thy will on me, that life I may inioy.

Here

of Apius and Virginia.

¶ Here tye a handcarcher aboute hir eyes, and then
Strike of hir heade.

Now stretch thy hand Virginius, that loth would flesh destroy,
O cruell handes, or blouddy knife, o man what hast thou done,
Thy daughter deare, and onely heyre, hir vitall ende hath wone:
Come fatall blade make lyke dispatche, come Atropos, come ende,
Strike home thou careles arme with speede, of death be not afrayde.

Here entreth Comfort.

O noble knight Virginius, do stay, be not dismayde.
I curing Comfort present am, your doller to ayde:

980

Virginius.

Sith ioy is gone, sith life is deade:
What comfort can there be?
Nomoze there is but deepe dispaire,
And deadly death to me:

Comfort:

Nomoze Sir knight, but take the head, and wende a while with me,
It shalbe sent to court, for that Iudge Apius may it se,
In recompence of leachours lust, this present let him haue,
And stay your corps for certaine space, in coping from the graue:
So shall you see the end of him, and all his whole consent.
This wilbe comfort to your harte, Virginius be content.

990

Virginius.

O truth euen so, for Comfort els, I know, right well is none,
Wherefore I doe consent with you, come on let vs be gone:
But messenger my selfe wyll bee, my selfe will geue the giste,
Come on good Comfort, wend we then, there is no other thiste

¶ Here entreth Iudge Apius.

Exit.

Well hap as can hap, or no,
In hazard it is but let that goe,
I wyll what so happen perue on still,
Why none there is liuing, can let me my wyll:
I will haue Virginia, I will hir deuoure,
Els rigorous sword, hir hart shall deuoure.

A new Tragi call Comedie

Heere entreth Haphazard.

I came from Caleco euen the same houre,
And Hap was hyed to hackney in hempstrid,
In hazard he was of riding on beamestrid,
Then crowd crop on tree top hoist vp the sayle,
1010 Then groined their neckes, by the weight of their tayle,
Then dyd Carnifex, put these thre together,
Payd them their pasporte for clustring thither.

Apius.

Why how now Haphazard, of what doest thou speake?
He thinks in mad sort, thy talke thou doest breake,
Those thre words chopt all in one,
Is Carnifex that signifieth a Hangman:
Peace no such words before me do vtter,

Haphazard.

1020 Nay I lye as still as a Cat in a gutter.
Go to Judge Apius, go forward good Prince,
Perhaps ye may haue that, the which wyl not blince.

Apius.

What is the man that liueth now so neare to doore of death?
As I for lust of Lady faire, whose lacke will stop my bryeth:
But long I shall not want her sight, I stay her comming heere,
Oh lucky light, lo present heere hir father doth appeare,
Oh how I loy, yet bragge thou not, Dame beuty bides behinde,
Virginus, where is the maide? how haps thou breakes my minde?

1030

Here entreth Virginus.

Oh wicked Judge the Virgin chaste,
Hath sent her beutious face,
In recompence of Lechour gaine,
To thee so voide of grace:
She bids thee imbue thy bloody handes,
And filthy Leche rous minde:

With

of Apius and Virginia.

With Venus Damfels boyde of shame,
Where such thou haps to finde:
But thou as with Dianas ympes,
Salt neuer be acquainted.

1040

They rather wishe the naked knife,
Then Virgins life attainted:
In ende iust profe whereof,
Beholde Virginias heade:
She sought hir fame, thou soughts hir shame,
This arme hath smit her dead.

Apius.

Oy curst and cruell cankerd churle, oh carll vnnaturall,
Which hast the seede of thine owne lym, thrust forth to funerall:
Ye Gods bend downe your ye, do plague him for his deede,
You spytes below, you hellish houndes, do geue him gaule for meed:
My selke will be his latter end, I Iudge him to the death,
Like death that faire Virginia toke, the lyke shall stop his breath:
Then slak ky teends of Lymbo lake, his ghoſt do so toympole,
That he haue neede of Carons helpe, for all his filthy toyle:
Come Justice then, come on Rewarde, come ayde me in my neede,
Thou wicked knight shal slaughter be, w self same knife with speed.

1050

Virginus.

Sith she a virgine pure and chaste, in heauen leades hir life,
Content I am to dye with her, and dye vpon her knife.

1060

Apius.

Come Justice then, come on reward, when Judgment now doth cal.

Where entreth Justice and Reward.

And they both speake this.

We both are ready here at hande, to worke thy fatall fall.

Iustice.

Oy gorgan Iudge, what lawles life hast thou most wicked led?
Thy soking Anne hath sonke thy soule, thy vertues all are fled:
Thou chaste and vndefiled life didest seeke for to haue spotted,
And thy Reward is ready here, by Justice now allotted.

1070

The Tragical Comedie

Rewarde.

Thy lust Reward, is deadly death, wherfore come wend away,
To death I straight will do thy corps, then lust shall haue his pray:
Viginus thou woofull knight, come neare and take thy foe,
In prison thou make him fast, no more let him do so:
Let Claudius for tittany be hanged on a tree.

Virginus.

Ah right Reward, the Gods be blis,
This day I chauce to see.

1080

Haphazard.

Why how now my lord Apius, what cheare?
Why where is my Reward for this geare?
Why dyd I ride run and reuell,
And for all my saunting now am made a Fauell?
Why run sir knaue call me Claudius?
Then run with a vengeaunce watch Virginus,
Then ride sirra, is Virginia at Church,
Then gallope to see where her father doth lurche,
Then by sirra, now what counsell?

1090

Of Dame bewty what newes canst thou tell?
Thus in hurly burly from piller to poste,
Pooze Haphazard daily was toste,
And now with Virginus he goes sadly walking,
And nothing at all will listen my talking,
But shall I be so vled at his hands,
As leue I were neare in Limbo bands,
That Dionel, that dyowly Drakenosed dyuill,
He neuer learned his manners in Siuill:
A Judge may caule a gentleman, a gentleman nay a sack hearinge,
As honest as he that carries his hole on his neck for feare of wering
A Caitife, a Cutthote, a churle worthy blame,
I wyll serue him no longer the Deuill geue him shame:
Yet by the House foote, I am not content,
I will haue a reward sure els will I repent,
To master reward I straight wales will go,

The

of Apius and Virginia.

The worst that can hap is but a noo :
But sure I know his honesty is such,
That he will recompence me, with litle or much :
And well this prouerb commeth in my head,
Birlady halfe a loafe is better then nere a whitt of bread, 1110
Therefore hap, and be happely, hap that hap may,
I wyll put it in hazard, I geue it assay:
Alhaye, maister Reward and righteous Justice,
I beseech you let me be recompenced to, according to my seruice,
For why all this long time I haue liued in hope,
Reward.

Then for thy reward, then here is a rope.
Haphazard.

Pray softe my maisters by saincte Thomas of trunions,
I am not disposed to by of your onions: 1120
A rope (quoth you) away with that showing,
It would greue a man hauing two plowes goyng,
Pray say I pray you, and let the Cat winke,
It is naught in dyy sommer, for letting my dwinke.
Iustice.

Let or let not there is no remedy, hanging shalbe thy reward verely
Haphazard.

Is there nothing but hanging to my lot doth fall,
Then take you my rewarde much good doo it you withall.
I am not so hasty although I be clayming, 1130
But that I can afozd you, the most of my gaying:
I wyll let, let, graunt, yelde, permit and promise,
All the reuenewes to you of my seruice :
I am friendly, I am kindly, I proffer you faire,
You shall be my ful executoz and heyre.
Reward.

Pray make you ready first to dye by the roode,
Then we will dispoze it as we think it good:
Then those that with you to this dyd consent,
e lyke reward shall cause them repent. 1140

of Apius and Virginia.

Haphazard.

Must I needs hang, by the gods it doth spight me,
To thinke how crabbedly this silke lace will bite me:
Then come cosin cutpurs, come runne haste and solow me,
Haphazard, must hang, come solow the lyuerie. Exit.

Iustice.

Well wende we now the finall ende of fleshy lust wee see. 1180

¶ The Epilogue.

AS earthly life is graunted none for euermore to raigne,
But denting death wil cause them al to grant this world as vain
Right worshipfull Sir sure it is that mortall life must bade,
Do practise then to winne his loue that all in all hath made:
And by this Poets faining here example do you take,

1210

Of Virginias life, of chastetie, of duty to thy make.

Of loue to wife, of loue to spouse, of loue to husband deare,

Of bringing vp of tender youth, all these are noted heare:

I doubt it not right worshipful, but well you do conceiue,

The matter that is ended now, and thus I take my leau:

Beleeching God as dutie is, our gracious Queene to saue,

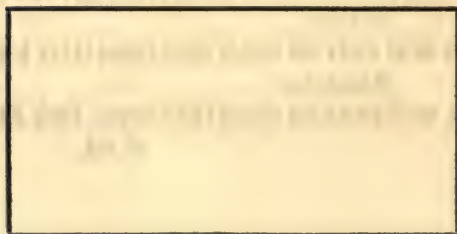

The Nobles, and the commons eke, with prosperous life I craue.
